attend the Wainwright Convention in June.

Service will be held in the Horse

To the Secty, Local Red Cross, Kirriemuir, Alta.

Dear Madam,

I am writing in acknowlegde-ment of the parcel I received from your Society, yesterday.

Allow me to sincerely express my gratitude, not only for the parcel, which was a treasure trove, but also for the Xmas Spirit which prompted its origination and speeded its leaving.
It is a source of unbounded delight to know that one's friends at the home-town are thinking of you and planning for the comforts of the boys over here.
I am sorry that the parcel was so long in coming, and was consequently in rather a damaged condition, but I can assure you that it was all eaten except the handkerchief, and that everything was appreciated. A parcel from home here is like money, or more like pearls, often talked about but rarely seen, so consequently when they come their stay is short.

Well, kindly extend to everybody my sincere thanks and also my kindest regards.

I am, sincerely yours,

Pte. L. A. Schon.

The Editor left yesterday for Toronto to attend the annual Press Convention. During his absence there will be no issue of the News. He expects to return in about three weeks.

BUSY BIDEFORD

The Centenary of Queen Victoria's birth was the occasion of a celebration at Compeer, where the live wires had arranged a base ball match on Friday afternoon, Compeer 17 Sounding Creek 4, a dance at night, and a picnic next day to Sounding Creek. Several Bidefordites took in the festivities and they had a "jake" time. We wondered why it was nothing had been arranged for the enjoyment of the young people in our own town. To put up a flag is good, but it is not enough, and the young folks are entitled to a little more of the joy of life than Bideford offers. We trust the City Fathers will do something to Memorialize Peace, if not for patriotic reasons, then at least for the sake of the boys and girls of the community, who in years to come ought to be able to look back to the Great War and remember one red letter day, when the world declared Peace. A town that was so dilatory in welcoming back its first soldier boy and so remiss in hospitality that the lad had to get up his own welcome home dance, (oh, the irony of a "soldier's welcome" arranged by the recipient) will very likely allow the great occasion of Peace to slip away unhonored and unsung. Remembering how our townfolk left the visitors and strangers to light the bonfire of the Victory Campaign and how one prominent citizen cold-shouldered the writer's efforts to furnish refreshment on that occasion, we greatly fear that Bideford will be behind, and little or nothing done. We appeal to the School Trustees, the Business Men's Club, and the Women's organizations to get together and do something practical for the sake of the children if for nothing else.

Dear "Not a Merchant,"

We quite agree with you it would be "nicer to know why Bideford folks cannot get properly waited on in their home stores." We know no explanation that is adequate or satisfactory to us. We hear great dissatisfaction about our shopping service and would like to know the reason why Bideford money finds its way into other channels. We are also informed that better prices prevail elsewhere, that in our town an air of condescension or a frozen frown is a poor welcome to country shoppers who dislike to be snubbed and will not be ignored. May we humbly suggest to the B. M. C. to get someone to read a paper on the "Art of Salesmanship." "Not a Merchant" is also not a judge of human nature or she (we feel sure no man would write such a letter) would understand us and interpret our motives correctly. Bideford never had a better booster than its correspondent, who, in season or out, has tried to boom the little home town, and has ever wished to assist, not injure the local stores.

The Newsman.

Dr. and Mrs. Dean Robinson left for Edmonton where we understand the Dr. is writing further examinations.

We are glad to report that Miss Inkster is back to school again. Her mother is slowly recovering.

Miss Mable Myles is up from Hanna on a visit.

Every Farmer
In This District
Should Read The Nor'-West Farmer

Western Canada's Oldest Farm Paper

If you are already a subscriber you will want to renew your subscription for another year, and if you are not a subscriber to it you ought to be. No farmer in these days of high prices and labor shortage can afford to do anything but his very best. Through a good farm paper you will get ideas worth many times the small subscription price. Each issue of The Nor-West Farmer is full of valuable information that any up-to-date farmer can use to his own direct advantage. It is edited for the whole farm family. If any reader wants information on any subject relating to either their farm problems or anything else The Nor-West Farmer information bureau will get that information for them. Their official veterinarian and legal adviser is at the service of every subscriber, free of all charge. If you have a weed problem, a soil drilling problem, a feed problem, tractor, automobile, or gas engine trouble of any kind, read The Nor-West Farmer, and you will soon get a wealth of ideas from the experience of other farmers who have experienced and solved similar difficulties. The Nor-West Farmer is a "round-table" around which the best farmers of Western Canada meet. Will you be one of them?
